Upon the application of the United States of America, with the consent of counsel for the defendants HO WAN KWOK and YANPING WANG, and having requested discovery under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16, the Court hereby finds and orders as follows:

1. Disclosure Material. The Government will make disclosure to the defendants of documents, objects and information, including electronically stored information (“ESI”), pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16, 18 U.S.C. § 3500, and the Government’s general obligation to produce exculpatory and impeachment material in criminal cases, all of which will be referred to herein as “disclosure material.”

2. Confidential Material. Certain of the Government’s disclosure material, referred to herein as “Confidential Material,” contains material that affects the privacy and confidentiality of individuals or entities, including but not limited to: financial information (e.g. bank account information, credit card information, and mobile payment information) and personal identifying information (e.g. names, addresses phone numbers). Any Confidential Material produced by the Government in this action shall be Bates-stamped with the designation “Confidential” or otherwise identified by the Government to counsel for the defendants as Confidential Material. The Government’s designation of material as Confidential Material will be controlling absent contrary order of the Court.

3. Highly Confidential Material. Certain of the Government’s disclosure material, referred to herein as “Highly Confidential Material,” contains highly confidential material that affects the privacy and confidentiality of individuals or entities such that its disclosure could cause substantial harm to those individuals or entities, including but not limited to: sensitive financial information (financial information of victims), personal identifying information of victims and their family members (e.g. names, addresses, Social Security numbers, Passport numbers, dates of birth, phone numbers, e-mail addresses, visual images and voices), and other sensitive information. Any Highly Confidential Material produced by the Government in this action shall be Bates-stamped with the designation “Highly Confidential” or otherwise identified by the Government to counsel for the defendants as Highly Confidential Material. The Government’s designation of material as Highly Confidential Material will be controlling absent contrary order of the Court.

4. Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material. Certain of the Government’s disclosure material, referred to herein as “Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material,” contains highly confidential and highly sensitive material that affects the privacy, confidentiality, and/or safety interests of individuals or entities, such that its disclosure could cause substantial harm and/or pose safety concerns to individuals or entities, including but not limited to: information related to victims subject to harassment, and materials concerning the Government's ongoing investigation (i.e. sources, methods, identities, identifiers or locations relating to uncharged individuals). Any Attorneys' Eyes Only Material produced by the Government in this action shall be Bates-stamped with the designation "Attorneys' Eyes Only" or otherwise identified by the Government to counsel for the defendant as Attorneys' Eyes Only Material. The Government's designation of material as Attorneys' Eyes Only will be controlling absent contrary order of the Court.

5. Facilitation of Discovery. The entry of a protective order in this case will permit the Government to produce expeditiously the disclosure material without further litigation or the need for redaction. It will also afford the defense prompt access to those materials.

6. Good Cause. There is good cause for entry of the protective order set forth herein.

7. Restrictions on Confidential Material. Confidential Material disclosed to the defendants or to their counsel during the course of proceedings in this action:

Prior to disclosure of Confidential Material, Highly Confidential Material or Attorney's Eyes Only Material pursuant to paragraphs 7(e), 8 and 9, any such individual shall agree to be subject to the terms of this Order by signing a copy hereof and stating that they "Agree to be bound by the terms herein," and providing such copy to the defendant's counsel. However, the defendants and their counsel need not obtain signatures from any member of the defense team (i.e., attorneys, experts, consultants, paralegals, investigators, support personnel, and secretarial staff involved in the representation of the defendant in this case), all of whom are nonetheless bound by this Protective Order.

11. Protection of Confidential Material, Highly Confidential Material, and Attorneys' Eyes Only Material. The defendants and/or their counsel shall use reasonable care to ensure that the Confidential Material, Highly Confidential Material, and Attorneys' Eyes Only Material are not disclosed or disseminated to any third parties in violation of this Protective Order. All filings should comply with the privacy protection provisions of Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1.

13. Disclosure and Protection of Seized ESI. The Government has advised that information that may be subject to disclosure in this case may be contained within ESI that the Government has seized during the course of the investigation from various computers, cell phones, and other devices and storage media. The Government is authorized to disclose to counsel for the defendants, for use solely as permitted herein, the entirety of such seized ESI as the Government believes may contain disclosure material ("the seized ESI disclosure material"). The defendants, defense counsel, and personnel for whose conduct counsel is responsible, i.e., personnel employed by or retained by counsel, may review the seized ESI disclosure material to identify items pertinent to the defense. They shall not further disseminate or disclose any portion of the seized ESI disclosure material except as otherwise set forth under this Order.
